Getting Straight (1970) [124 min.]

Directed by Richard Rush

In a time of increasing campus turmoil, a non-conformist former student activist returns to college, and an uncertain future, after a stint in Vietnam. Elliot Gould plays a man torn between two worlds, the aging academic establishment he's working to join and the social uprising embodied by his socially radical girlfriend (Candice Bergen). Richard Rush's shaggy-haired counterculture comedy captures the pulse of a changing generation.

Saturday • July 13

Barbarella (1968) [98 min.]

Directed by Roger Vadim

Blast off with a candy-colored, sexily surreal camp classic from producer Dino De Laurentiis and director Roger Vadim! Wearing go-go boots, a space bikini and not much else, Jane Fonda is Barbarella, an astronaut from the 41st century travelling the galaxy in search of scientist Durand Durand, bouncing from one exotic planet, dangerous scenario and sexual situation to the next - encountering John Phillips Law, David Homnings, and more along the way.

Saturday • July 20

I Love You, Alice B. Toklas (1968) [93 min.]

Directed by Hy Averback

Peter Sellers explores hitherto new territory in a flower power psychedelic comedy written by Paul Mazursky and Larry Tucker. With the help of a batch of Alice B. Toklas' groovy hash brownies, Harold Fine (Sellers) goes from suave layabouts to dedicated dropout, trading his "straight" life for ball bathhouses and free love, while falling head over heels for his brother's hippie girlfriend (Leigh Taylor-Young).

Once Upon a Time in... Hollywood (2019)

Written and Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Hollywood* visits 1969 Los Angeles, where everything is changing, as TV star Rick Dalton (Leonardo DiCaprio) and his longtime stunt double Cliff Booth (Brad Pitt) make their way around an industry they hardly recognize anymore. The ninth film from the writer-director features a large ensemble cast and multiple storylines in a tribute to the final moments of Hollywood's golden age.

The Love Bug (1968) [108 min.]

Directed by Robert Stevenson

The Walt Disney classic in vibrant I.B. Technicolor Herbie's not your ordinary Volkswagen Beetle - he's a four-cylinder superstar with a mind of his own. And when he's rescued by a hapless racer (Dean Jones) and his philosophical mechanic friend (Buddy Hackett), he shifts from showroom to racetrack with lots of fun-fueled antics in between, much to the displeasure of the petrol car dealer (David Tomlinson) who wants him back.

July 13 & 14 at 2:00pm

Herbie Rides Again (1974) [89 min.]

Directed by Robert Stevenson

The love bug is back in gear and revved up for more madcap adventure! This time the anthropomorphic automobile is helping a spirited San Franciscan (Helen Hayes) save her house from the wrecking ball of a ruthless real estate magnate (Keenan Wynn), while playing matchmaker between the woman's niece (Stefanie Powers) and the developer's nephew (Ken Berry). It's a good-natured good time for all ages!

July 20 & 21 at 2:00pm

Herbie Goes to Monte Carlo (1977) [105 min.]

Directed by Vincent McEvety

It's major fun-per-gallon when Herbie falls 'hood-over-wheels' for a classy chassis during a high-speed race from Paris to Monte Carlo. With our beloved bug's headlights set on a sleek & sporty Lancia, this rally is bound to turn into a hilarious Herbie derby, especially since a pair of jewel thieves are after the six million dollar diamond they've hidden in the VW's gas tank. Dean Jones is back behind the wheel, this time with Don Knotts as his eccentric sidekick.

July 27 & 28 at 2:00pm

Herbie: Fully Loaded (2005) [101 min.]

Directed by Angela Robinson

He's stronger, he's faster, he's Herbie-er! Start your engines the world's wildest Volkswagen is getting tuned-up and tricked-out in a turbo-charged update for the twenty-first century. When a teen with NASCAR dreams finds a beat-up old bug in the junkyard, the unlikely partners will team to rewrite racing history. A charismatic Lindsay Lohan stars alongside a stellar supporting cast including Michael Keaton and Matt Dillon.
