The Land That Time Forgot (1974)

- [90 min.]

- Directed by Kevin Connor

- Voyage to The Land That Time Forgot, a prehistoric world of primitive man and prehistoric beasts, in this thrilling fantasy adventure based on the classic Edgar Rice Burroughs’ classic novel. When a WW II German submarine torpedoes an Allied ship and picks up the survivors, they drift dangerously off course and run aground on a mysterious, previously-uncharted island. Now these opposing forces will have to band together to battle even deadlier threats, camouflaged creatures, killer carnivores and gigantic dinosaurs in an action-packed quest for survival!

May 13 & 14

The People That Time Forgot (1977)

- [90 min.]

- Directed by Kevin Connor

In this pulse-pounding sequel, hardbitten adventure (Patrick Wayne, The Dak's son) launches a daring journey to rescue The Land That Time Forgot's Doug McClure from the lost continent at the heart of the Pacific Ocean. But when their expedition's flight is cut short by a troublesome pterodactyl, the team will have to trek through a strange, primeval world, fighting ancient beasts and fearsome foes, to find their friend before it's too late.

May 20 & 21

The Abominable Dr. Phibes (1971)

- [93 min.]

- Directed by Robert Fuest

A gruesomely humorous mix of sadistic wit, high camp horror and stunning Art Deco design, The Abominable Dr. Phibes towers as one of Hammer's greatest terror fantasies. In a signature role, Vincent Price stars as a diabolical doc / demented organ player backing off the men he holds responsible for his wife's death. As the mad doctor unleashes bees, bats, frogs and other biblical plagues against his victims, he proves that revenge is often the best medicine.

May 27 & 28

Pee Wee's Big Adventure (1985)

- [91 min.]

- Directed by Tim Burton

In Tim Burton's inspired feature length directorial debut, Pee-wee Herman explodes to life in one of the most exciting, creatively colorful, constantly quotable and enduring comedies of the decade! When his fully-customized, fire engine red bicycle is stolen, Pee-wee sets off on a Big Adventure to get it back, hitchhiking cross-country and encountering a quirky cast of new friends along the way. On his wild journey, he'll visit the Alamo, stop at a phantasmagorical burning pet shop, and win over a bunch of bikers with a set of unforgettable dance moves that'll have you shouting "Booey!"
