J. Lee Thompson Film Festival: Charles Bronson at Midnight!

Saturday • September 3
The Evil That Men Do (1984) [90 min.]

Directed by J. Lee Thompson

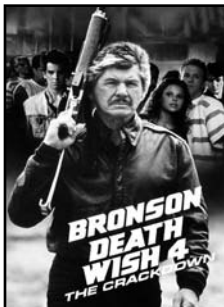

In the execution of justice, there's no executioner like Charles Bronson. In one of Chuck's most notoriously seedy '80s actioners, he plays a former CIA assassin pulled out of retirement to avenge the death of a friend at the hands of a sadistic doctor in a Latin American torture facility. But as he starts to pick off bad guys one by one, he discovers a brutal trail of political corruption that could lead to the very top.

Saturday • September 10
Murphy's Law (1986) [100 min.]

Directed by J. Lee Thompson

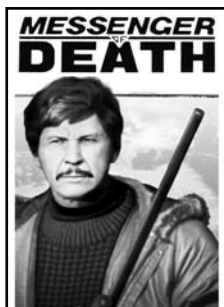

Don't mess with Jack Murphy! He's a cop, she's a thief...and together they're running for their lives across the streets of Los Angeles! Framed for a crime he didn't commit, Charles Bronson is handcuffed to Witchboard's Kathleen Wilhoite with both the police and a crazed killer hot on their heels. With nowhere left to turn, they must rely on each other to find the real murderer before it's too late.

Saturday • September 17
Death Wish 4: The Crackdown (1987) [99 min.]

Directed by J. Lee Thompson

Our favorite architect turned vigilante is back with a vengeance and this time the one man wrecking crew has declared war on the scourge of crack cocaine. After his new girlfriend's daughter dies of an overdose, Charles Bronson embarks on a vicious takedown of the Los Angeles narcotics trade, dealing death to the drug pushers that plague the streets on his violent crusade against the organized crime cartels behind it all.

Saturday • September 24
Messenger of Death (1988) [91 min.]

Directed by J. Lee Thompson

What the cops can't do, HE WILL. When a family is brutally massacred in their own home, a no-nonsense crime reporter (Charles Bronson) must cut through bureaucratic BS on a relentless quest to bring the killer to justice. But unraveling the mystery reveals a dangerous web of greed, corruption and religious retribution in an isolated Mormon sect, and an avenging angel will do anything to silence him.

"Kiddee Matinees" every Saturday and Sunday at 2:00pm

All tickets $6 • Free kid-size popcorn for children 12 and under!

September 3 & 4 at 2:00pm
Tom Sawyer (1973) [103 min.]

Directed by Don Taylor

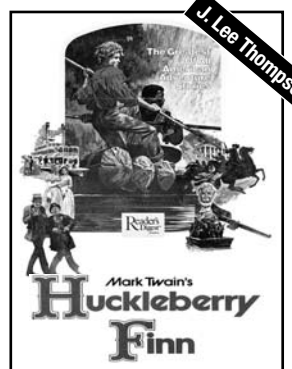

A musical version of Mark Twain's classic novel? Yes! It's charming and delightful, especially Warren Oates' "A Man's Gotta Be What He's Born to Be". Relive childhood memories or introduce children to this timeless adaptation of one of America's finest novels. Starring Johnny Whitaker as Tom Sawyer and Jodie Foster as Becky Thatcher, the girl Tom has a crush on. Famed songwriters the Sherman Brothers provide the music.

September 10 & 11 at 2:00pm
Huckleberry Finn (1974) [118 min.]

Directed by J. Lee Thompson

This delightful musical adaptation of Mark Twain's beloved novel begins where The Adventures of Tom Sawyer left off. Produced by Arthur P. Jacobs (Planet of the Apes series) and co-written by the Sherman Brothers (Mary Poppins, Snoopy Come Home), the film stars Jeff East as Huck Finn and Paul Winfield as the slave Jim. Seeking adventure and an escape from his no-good father, Huck rafts down the Mississippi River, where he is joined by his friend Jim. Amazing adventures and a cast of crazy characters await them!

September 17 & 18 at 2:00pm
Follow That Bird (1985) [89 min.]

Directed by Ken Kwapis

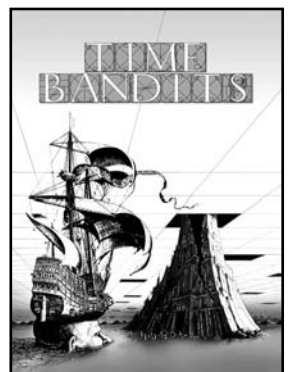

Thinking a bird should be with his own kind, meddling social worker Miss Finch takes Big Bird away from Sesame Street and plops him down in Illinois with a bird family. Big Bird longs for his real home back in New York, though, and runs away. Along his journey (on foot, as he doesn't fly) he is met and helped by all our favorites, including Kermit, Oscar the Grouch, Bert & Ernie, the Cookie Monster, the Count (in a rad Countmobile) and more! Guest stars include Chevy Chase, John Candy and Sandra Bernhard.

September 24 & 25 at 2:00pm
Time Bandits (1981) [113 min.]

Directed by Terry Gilliam

Join us for Art House Theater Day, which celebrates art houses and the role they play in the community. Time Bandits, the 1980 fantasy-adventure classic from Monty Python member Terry Gilliam, will be one of the films featured on screens throughout the U.S. Kevin, an 11-year old boy with a big imagination and pre-occupied parents, has the adventure of a lifetime when a group of dwarves burst out of his closet door carrying a very important map they stole from the Supreme Being. The dwarves find that Kevin's wall can be pushed open to expose an empty void, which they all jump into as they embark on an epic journey through space and time.
