Raiders of the Lost Ark (1981) [115 min.]

Directed by Steven Spielberg

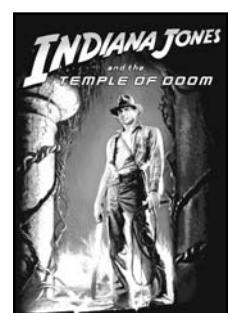

Producer George Lucas, screenwriter Lawrence Kasdan, and director Steven Spielberg gift us with one of the greatest adventures to ever grace the big screen! Follow archeology professor Indiana Jones (Harrison Ford) in a whip-smart, thrill-a-minute escapade that finds our hero facing evil Nazis, booby-trapped temples, and ex-flame Marion Ravenwood (Karen Allen) in a dash to uncover the lost Ark of the Covenant.

February 11 & 12 at 2:00pm

Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom

Directed by Steven Spielberg (1984) [118 min.]

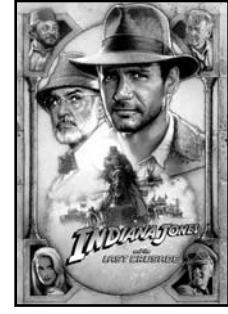

In the second film in the blockbuster franchise, our dashing daredevil is tasked with locating a sacred stone and saving kidnapped children. With a pre-teen sidekick (Ke Huy Quan) and a nightclub singer (Kate Capshaw) at his side, Indy embarks on another mission, that while darker and more violent, maintains the non-stop excitement, jaw-dropping stunt work, and smile-inducing exuberance of the original.

February 18 & 19 at 2:00pm

Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade

Directed by Steven Spielberg (1989) [127 min.]

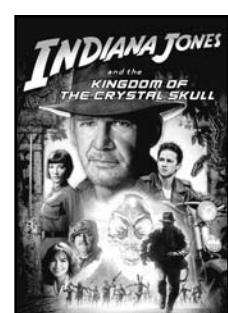

The man with the hat is back. And this time, he's bringing his dad. In Spielberg's spectacular sequel, our courageous explorer sets off on a perilous quest to rescue his father (Sean Connery) and hunt down the Holy Grail before it falls into the hands of Hitler's henchmen. And in this sort of race, there's no silver medal for finishing second.

February 25 & 26 at 2:00pm

Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull

Directed by Steven Spielberg (2008) [122 min.]

The adventure continues in the fun-filled fourth installment in the Indiana Jones saga. Sidelined at his academic institution, our aging globetrotter will team with a young new friend (Shia LaBeouf) - and reunite with a surprising face from his past - while trying to outrun sinister Soviets and their sword-wielding leader (Cate Blanchett) in a search for a mysterious crystal skull that may have supernatural secrets.
