ONCE UPON A TIME IN...
HOLLYWOOD

Written and Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Saturday • June 3
Batman & Robin (1997) [125 min.]
Directed by Joel Schumacher

We're going to need a bigger cave. The famed crime-fighting pals will have to work to maintain their friendship while fighting big baddies for the survival of Gotham City. Director Joel Schumacher dials this slice of comic book camp to 11, unleashing an over-the-top superhero spectacular packed with pop art flourishes. George Clooney dons the dark knight's cape while Arnold Schwarzenegger and Uma Thurman play villains Mr. Freeze and Poison Ivy.

Saturday • June 10
Drop Dead Gorgeous (1999) [97 min.]
Directed by Michael Patrick Jann

The battle between the good and the bad is about to get ugly in small town Mount Rose, Minnesota, when someone will mysteriously do anything to determine the outcome of the annual Sarah Rose Cosmetics American Teen Princess Pageant. Drop Dead Gorgeous is drop dead funny, a wickedly biting satire overflowing with witty dialogue and featuring an all-star cast that includes Kirsten Dunst, Denise Richards, Kirstie Alley, Ellen Barkin, Brittany Murphy, Amy Adams, Allison Janney, and more!

Saturday • June 24
Showgirls (1995) [131 min.]
Directed by Paul Verhoeven

Leave your inhibitions at the door, the show is about to begin. Director Paul Verhoeven and screenwriter Joe Eszterhas go beyond your wildest dreams and beyond your wildest fantasies in their outrageously titillating, NC-17 rated tale of sex, seduction, betrayal, and backstage melodrama that follows a young drifter clawing her way toward the dream of becoming a top Las Vegas showgirl. Elizabeth Berkley, Gina Gershon, and Kyle MacLachlan star.

Saturday • June 17 starting at 6:30pm

HALLOWEEN HORRORS MARATHON

Our favorite fright-filled holiday shrieks early with a fiendish foursome of Halloween-themed horror features and a bone-chilling bounty of spooky trailers, tricks, and treats, all screaming in 35mm, with titles remaining top secret until they unspool on screen to cast a spectral spell on the unsuspecting audience!!!

E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial (1982) [114 min.]
Directed by Steven Spielberg

Relive the epic adventure and endearing magic of one of the most beloved cinematic experiences of all time! Steven Spielberg's heart-warming kid-power favorite paints the screen with unparalleled imagination and unforgettable performances, iconic Carlo Rambaldi effects, and a stirring John Williams score to tell the timeless tale of love between a young boy and a surprise visitor from another planet.
• Screening from a 35mm print of the original theatrical version •

June 10 & 11 at 2:00pm

20,000 Leagues Under the Sea (1954) [127 min.]
Directed by Richard Fleischer

From the depths of the never-ending ocean and its fathomless world of infinite mystery comes Walt Disney's stunning adaptation of Jules Verne's enduring classic. Following a wave of strange sinkings, a ship is sent to investigate tales of a mysterious monster... but find something else entirely. Kirk Douglas and James Mason headline a top-notch cast, while the impressive practical effects continue to dazzle in a spectacular CinemaScope adventure from director Richard Fleischer.

June 17 & 18 at 2:00pm

Spy Kids (2001) [91 min.]
Directed by Robert Rodriguez

A brother & sister will uncover the secrets of the family business when their undercover OSS parents are called back into action and captured by an evil children's tv host. Now this pint-sized pair will have to become real spies, only smaller, in their globe-trotting quest to rescue them. Writer-Director Robert Rodriguez crafts an exciting thrill ride filled with charm, creativity, and high-tech gadgetry; Spy Kids is an absolute blast!

June 24 & 25 at 2:00pm

Galaxy Quest (1999) [102 min.]
Directed by Dean Parisot

Never give up, never surrender! The cast of a cancelled science fiction show go from out-of-work actors to outer space heroes when they're drawn into an actual interstellar escapade with life-or-death consequences. It's a gut-busting comedy of galactic proportions that shines with an excellent ensemble headlined by Tim Allen, Sigourney Weaver, and Alan Rickman, a phenomenal supporting cast of recognizable faces, and a playful script that lovingly skewers Star Trek fandom.
