ONCE UPON A TIME IN...
HOLLYWOOD

Saturday • April 6
Metropolis (2001) [108 min.]

Directed by Rintaro

Subtitled Version

An awe-inspiring anime sensation packed with incredible visuals! In a multilayered Metropolis, humans and robots have an uneasy coexistence, as a widening conspiracy surrounds a mysterious android. Famed director Rintaro helms a sci-fi stunner from Akira screenwriter Katsuhiro Otomo based on the classic manga by Osamu Tezuka.

Saturday • April 13
The Craft (1996) [101 min.]

Directed by Andrew Fleming

Welcome to the witching hour. When a troubled teen is sent to a new Catholic prep school, she befriends a trio of outsiders and becomes the fourth member of their magical coven. But using their powers to conjure spells against those who cross them has dangerous consequences. Fairuza Balk, Robin Tunney, Neve Campbell, & Rachel True star in a spellbinding goth fairy tale.

Saturday • April 20
Nice Dreams (1981) [87 min.]

Directed by Tommy Chong

Legendary duo Cheech & Chong are back for more outrageously hilarious hijinks in a totally stoned comedy fave that makes perfect midnight viewing for 4/20. The baked buds are making big bucks selling more than just ice cream out of their van. With the authorities in pursuit, they'll embark on an ever-escalating series of toke-enhanced misadventures.

The Muppets Take Manhattan (1984) [94 min.]

Directed by Frank Oz

When Kermit, Miss Piggy, and their felt-lined friends decide to take Broadway by storm with their new musical, they'll find it's gonna take hard work & perseverance to make it big in the Big Apple. Frank Oz's solo directorial debut is an endlessly entertaining, hysterically heartwarming Muppet delight!

April 13 & 14 at 2:00pm

Jason and the Argonauts (1963) [104 min.]

Directed by Don Chaffey

Ray Harryhausen's breathtaking movie magic shines in one of cinema's most colossal adventures! When our fearless hero Jason embarks on an epic quest in search of the Golden Fleece, he'll encounter countless dangers, including mythic monsters and an army of skeleton warriors, in a jaw dropping showcase of Harryhausen's stop-motion wizardry.

3:10 to Yuma (1957) [92 min.]

Directed by Delmer Daves

The lonesome whistle of a train... bringing the gallows closer to a desperado and the showdown nearer to his captor! In director Delmer Daves' pulse-poundingly efficient western thriller, a rancher (Van Heflin) agrees to deliver a captured outlaw (Glenn Ford) to the locomotive that will take him to prison.

April 27 & 28 at 2:00pm

Labyrinth (1986) [101 min.]

Directed by Jim Henson

A wild and wickedly whimsical wonderment chock-full of outrageous puppets, gleeful creations and unforgettable songs. When Jareth the Goblin King steals a baby boy, a teenager must rescue the tiny tot from a fairy tale where everything seems possible and nothing is as it seems. David Bowie & Jennifer Connelly star.
