RESERVOIR DOGS

Written & Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Saturday • August 2
Species (1995) [108 min.]

Directed by Roger Donaldson

Michael Madsen Tribute

For three million years, the human race has been at the top of the evolutionary ladder. Nothing lasts forever. And when scientists receive an interstellar transmission with alien instructions, they create a deadly new humanoid organism. Men cannot resist her. Mankind may not survive her. Natasha Henstridge and Michael Madsen star in a slick blast of sci-fi horror from director Roger Donaldson (Cocktail, No Way Out).

Saturday • August 9
Zabiskie Point (1970) [114 min.]

Directed by Michelangelo Antonioni

How you get there depends on where you're at. A student radical on the run from the law encounters a woman on their way to the desert in Italian auteur Michelangelo Antonioni's sole American feature, a bold, meditative, and visually striking counterculture head trip, backed by a soundtrack featuring Pink Floyd, Grateful Dead, and more.

Saturday • August 16
12 Monkeys (1995) [129 min.]

Directed by Terry Gilliam

The future is history. When a prisoner is sent back in time to investigate a deadly plague, he's launched too far and hospitalized at a mental institution, where he encounters a fellow patient who may be the key to his mission. Bruce Willis, Brad Pitt, and Madeleine Stowe star, while director Terry Gilliam (Brazil, Time Bandits) meticulously crafts an unforgettable sci-fi mind-shocker that rewards multiple viewings.

Saturday • August 23
Fast Times at Ridgemont High (1982) [90 min.]

Directed by Amy Heckerling

Carefully capturing the details of teenage life in a fresh & funny way that would help define the decade, Fast Times at Ridgemont High may well be the pinnacle of '80s high school age hilarity. Director Amy Heckerling & screenwriter Cameron Crowe nail the real-life emotions, vocabulary, and attitude of its adolescent protagonists, while Phoebe Cates, Sean Penn, and Jennifer Jason Leigh were catapulted to stardom on screen.

Saturday • August 30
The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai (1984) [103 min.]

Directed by W. D. Richter

He's a super cool brain surgeon, theoretical physicist, rock star, test pilot and all-around adventurer. And when evil aliens from the 8th dimension invade our world, only Buckaroo Banzai and his rockin' band, the Hong Kong Cavaliers, can stop them. RoboCop's Peter Weller headlines an incredible ensemble cast featuring Ellen Barkin, Jeff Goldblum, Christopher Lloyd, and John Lithgow in a timeless cult classic.

Free Willy (1993) [112 min.]

Directed by Simon Wincer

Michael Madsen Tribute

How far would you go for a friend? To avoid juvie, a rebellious teen is given the chance to make amends at the theme park he vandalized. There he'll form an unlikely bond with an orca in this heartwarming blockbuster. Lori Petty (Point Break) co-stars as Willy's vet, while Michael Madsen, a year after Reservoir Dogs, plays the foster dad.

August 9 & 10 at 2:00pm

The Cat Returns (2002) [75 min.]

Directed by Hiroyuki Morita

Dubbed Version

An animated feline fantasy from the beloved Studio Ghibli! When a shy high schooler rescues a cat on a busy road, she'll find herself entangled in a secret kitty kingdom and inadvertently engaged to their prince. As she starts to grow whiskers and a tail, she'll have to learn to believe in herself, if she's to ever return to the human world.

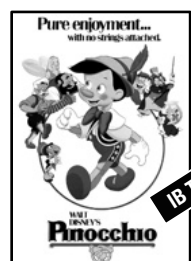

August 16 & 17 at 2:00pm

Pinocchio (1940) [88 min.]

Directed by Ben Sharpsteen and Hamilton Luske

Walt Disney's all-time animation classic is a spectacular stunner in vibrant I.B. Technicolor 35mm! When toymaker Geppetto makes a wish upon a star, his wooden marionette comes to life. And if Pinocchio proves himself to be brave, truthful, and unselfish, he'll have his heart's desire fulfilled and become a real boy.

August 23 & 24 at 2:00pm

Muppets from Space (1999) [88 min.]

Directed by Tim Hill

A madcap Muppet adventure that's hilariously out of this world! When word gets out that Gonzo's extra-terrestrial family is about to pay a visit, the men in black kidnap our purple-furred friend. Now only Kermit, Miss Piggy and their Muppet Show cast-mates can save him in this star-studded intergalactic comedy with far-out fun!

August 30 & 31 at 2:00pm

Super Mario Bros. (1993) [104 min.]

Directed by Rocky Morton and Annabel Jankel

Can two plumbers save the world from going down the drain? Nintendo's superstar Super Mario Bros. are our only hope in rescuing the princess, defeating a dino dictator, and saving the entire universe. Bob Hoskins & John Leguizamo star as Mario & Luigi, while Dennis Hopper plays the evil King Koopa in a film by the creators of Max Headroom.
