ONCE UPON A TIME IN... HOLLYWOOD

Written & Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Saturday • November 7

Flash Gordon (1980) [111 min.]

Directed by Mike Hodges

Alex Raymond's timeless comic strip blasts to life in one of the most exciting films of the '80s, a candy-colored cult confection of out-of-this-world special effects, wild costumes and interstellar design, with legendary rock heroes Queen providing some of the greatest tunes ever committed to celluloid. When our intrepid hero is unwittingly rocketed off Earth towards planet Mongo, he must face cruel ruler Ming the Merciless in an adventure packed with propulsive energy and spectacular thrills.

Saturday • November 14

The Jerk (1979) [94 min.]

Directed by Carl Reiner

A rags to riches to rags story. In his first feature film starring role, Steve Martin hilariously teams with director Carl Reiner for a crude and quotable comedy classic. When lovable naif Navin R. Johnson (Martin) discovers that he's adopted, he embarks on a series of madcap misadventures to find himself, while meeting a series of unusual characters along the way and learning what's truly valuable in life. Bernadette Peters co-stars.

Saturday • November 21

Exorcist II: The Heretic (1977) [116 min.]

Directed by John Boorman

It's four years later... what does she remember? Can a Vatican investigator (Richard Burton) and a psychiatric specialist (Louise Fletcher) unlock the secrets of Regan's demonic ordeal? Linda Blair returns in director John Boorman's (Zardoz, Excalibur) visually striking, freaked out follow-up to William Friedkin's horror masterpiece. Filmmaker Martin Scorsese once asserted, "I like the first Exorcist … but The Heretic surpasses it."

Saturday • November 28

Once Upon a Time in… Hollywood

Directed by Quentin Tarantino (2019) [161 min.]

Quentin Tarantino's Once Upon a Time in... Hollywood visits 1969 Los Angeles, where everything is changing, as TV star Rick Dalton (Leonardo DiCaprio) and his longtime stunt double Cliff Booth (Brad Pitt) make their way around an industry they hardly recognize anymore. The ninth film from the writer-director features a large ensemble cast and multiple storylines in a tribute to the final moments of Hollywood's golden age.

FAMILY MATINEES

$10 SATURDAY & SUNDAY AT 2:00PM $10

November 7 & 8 at 2:00pm

Remember the Titans (2000) [113 min.]

Directed by Boaz Yakin

Denzel Washington headlines Disney's based-on-a-true-story crowd-pleaser that rousingly chronicles the 1971 racial integration of a Virginia high school football team. Before they could win, they had to become one. The film excels both on and off the field with a stacked supporting cast that includes Will Patton, Wood Harris, Donald Faison, Ryan Gosling, Hayden Panettiere & more.

November 14 & 15 at 2:00pm

Ratatouille (2007) [111 min.]

Directed by Brad Bird

He's dying to become a chef. In Pixar's critically acclaimed blockbuster, a Parisian rat with a passion for cooking finds an unlikely partner for his culinary dreams. Now the improbable human-rodent duo will hilariously turn the restaurant world upside down with their delicious dishes, if their differences don't derail them first. Winner of the Academy Award for Best Animated Feature.

November 21 & 22 at 2:00pm

Fantastic Mr. Fox (2009) [87 min.]

Directed by Wes Anderson

Visionary director Wes Anderson helms a fun-filled, gorgeously designed stop-motion delight with an all-star voice cast, including George Clooney and Meryl Streep. Reformed thief Mr. Fox is living a quiet family life but yearns for his previous excitement. And when he slips into his sneaky old ways, it will ignite a dangerous war with his farming foes next door.

Rated PG-13

November 28 & 29 at 2:00pm

Batman Returns (1992) [126 min.]

Directed by Tim Burton

Tim Burton's massively entertaining follow-up to his groundbreaking Batman blockbuster goes bigger and bolder with the Penguin (Danny DeVito), Catwoman (Michelle Pfeiffer), and corrupt businessman Max Shrek (Christopher Walken) out to rid the world of the caped crusader (Michael Keaton). Batman Returns remains one of filmdom's most ambitious sequels, showcasing incredible production design and visual effects, along with standout performances.
