FROM DUSK TILL DAWN

THE BEYOND

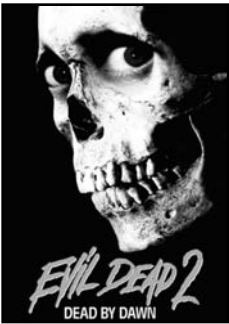

Saturday • May 7

The Beyond (1981) [87 min.]

Directed by Lucio Fulci

Italian horror icon Lucio Fulci unleashes his towering terror masterpiece, a fright-filled, gore-soaked fever dream that follows a young woman (Catriona MacColl), whose recently inherited old Louisianian hotel holds dark secrets. Long available only in an edited, incomplete version, The Beyond was beautifully restored & re-released uncut in the late '90s by Grindhouse Releasing and Quentin Tarantino's Rolling Thunder Pictures.

Saturday • May 21

Evil Dead II (1987) [84 min.]

Directed by Sam Raimi

When a young couple on vacation play a mysterious voice recording of their secluded cabin's previous occupant, all hell hilariously breaks loose. Sam Raimi's blood-drenched blast of humor & horror remains one of the all-time greats of cult cinema, an exhilaratingly splatterific Grand Guignol spookshow toplined by a pitch perfect performance from Bruce Campbell.

Saturday • May 28

An American Werewolf in London (1981) [97 min.]

Directed by John Landis

In John Landis' lupine classic, a pair of students on holiday are viciously attacked during a backpacking trip in England. While the survivor (David Naughton) heals with the aid of a lovely young nurse (Jenny Agutter), a full moon approaches and visions of his dead friend (Griffin Dunne) warn of his becoming An American Werewolf in London. Featuring ground-breaking, Oscar-winning transformation effects by Rick Baker!

Saturday • May 14 at 6:00pm

NINETIES NIGHTMARES MARATHON

Prepare for a thrilling fright fest that distills a decade of nightmarish delights and ghoulish glee into one fiendishly fun-filled night and four rarely screened feature films, plus an incredible assortment of trailers, shorts, and more, with all titles remaining secret until they unspool on screen to surprise, shock and amaze the audience.

Kiki's Delivery Service (1989) [104 min.]

ENGLISH SUBTITLED VERSION

Directed by Hayao Miyazaki

Visionary Japanese director Hayao Miyazaki adapts the award-winning Eiko Kadono novel to spectacular results! In the gorgeously drawn coming-of-age tale, a 13-year-old witch-in-training sets off with black cat and broom for a year-long adventure on her own to learn independence and responsibility. As she tries to find footing in her new community, she launches a high-flying delivery service to support herself.

May 14 & 15

Dracula (1931) [74 min.]

Directed by Tod Browning

The atmospheric Universal horror chiller by which all others are measured! Bela Lugosi gives a timeless performance as the hypnotic and mysterious Dracula in Tod Browning's masterful Bram Stoker adaptation, following the Count's bloodsucking reign of terror from Transylvania to London. But when he becomes transfixed with the virtuous Mina (Helen Chandler), it's up to her fiancé John Harker (David Manners) and the vampire hunter Professor Van Helsing (Edward Van Sloan) to stop him.

May 21 & 22

King Kong vs. Godzilla (1963) [91 min.]

Directed by Ishirō Honda and Thomas Montgomery

The two mightiest creatures of all time meet in the most colossal conflict the screen has ever known! See King Kong, the Eighth Wonder of the World, face off against the ultimate King of the Monsters...Godzilla! The towering titans smash, stomp, shatter, and destroy every obstacle in the path of their earth-shaking showdown in Toho's kaiju classic.

May 28 & 29 at 2:00pm

Abbott & Costello Meet Frankenstein (1948) [83 min.]

Directed by Charles Barton

Universal teams up popular comedy duo Abbott and Costello with their classic monsters for one of the greatest horror comedies of all time! Laughs and chills ensue when baggage clerks Chick Young (Bud Abbott) and Wilbur Grey (Lou Costello) find themselves delivering crates containing the bodies of Count Dracula (Bela Lugosi) and the Frankenstein monster (Glenn Strange), as the Wolf Man (Lon Chaney Jr.) tries to help them escape Dracula's plan to steal Wilbur's brain!
