Saturday • July 2

I Know What You Did Last Summer (1997) [101 min.]

Directed by Jim Gillespie

If you're going to bury the truth, make sure it stays buried. When four high school friends celebrating the 4th of July make a deadly mistake, it will come back to haunt them. Featuring a peak-of-the-era teen cast including Jennifer Love Hewitt, Sarah Michelle Gellar, Ryan Phillippe, and Freddie Prinze Jr., screenwriter Kevin Williamson's follow-up to his blockbuster hit Scream cemented the slasher revival of the late '90s.

Saturday • July 9

The Evil Dead (1981) [85 min.]

Directed by Sam Raimi

When a group of vacationing college students play a mysterious recording of their secluded cabin's previous occupant, all hell horrifically breaks loose. Sam Raimi's blood-drenched blast of low budget enthusiasm & imagination remains one of the all-time greats of cult cinema, an exhilaratingly splatterific spookshow toplined by a pitch perfect performance from Bruce Campbell in his film debut.

Saturday • July 23

The Velvet Vampire (1971) [80 min.]

Directed by Stephanie Rothman

She's waiting to love you... to death! Stephanie Rothman's dreamy & sun-soaked blend of beauty & blood is a swirling kaleidoscopic gem of cinematic psychedelia and a groovy American compliment to the arty euro-horror of Jesús Franco and Jean Rollin. When a pair of hip new-lweds accept a mysterious woman's invitation to her secluded desert estate, they soon find themselves under her sexy supernatural spell.

Saturday • July 30

Sleepaway Camp (1983) [85 min.]

Directed by Robert Hiltzik

A jaw-dropping cult classic filled with creatively gruesome kills, deliciously devilish dialogue, and an eye-bulging collection of short shorts, half shirts and feathered hair. Following a childhood trauma, shy Angela Baker is shipped off to camp to get a new lease on life. But when her introverted demeanor invites ridicule, her fellow campers begin to die one by one, leading to the most mind-shattering finale in the grand history of shock cinema.

Saturday • July 16 starting at 6:30pm

SUMMER CAMP SLASH-A-THON

Prepare for an epic Summer Camp Slash-A-Thon celebrating the season's communal right of passage in the great outdoors, from hiking & canoeing to campfire stories & masked maniacs, all packed into one fiendishly fun-filled night and four horrific feature films, plus an incredible assortment of trailers, shorts, and more, with all titles remaining secret until they unspool on screen to surprise, shock and amaze the audience.

Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade (1989) [128 min.]

Directed by Steven Spielberg

The man with the hat is back. And this time, he's bringing his dad. In Steven Spielberg's spectacular sequel, intrepid adventurer Indiana Jones (Harrison Ford) embarks on a whip-smart, thrill-a-minute escapade to rescue his father (Sean Connery), fight off Nazi foes, and find the Holy Grail before it's too late.

July 9 & 10 at 2:00pm
Back to the Future (1985) [116 min.]

Directed by Robert Zemeckis

Marty McFly's having the time of his life. The only question is what time is it? When an '80s high schooler is accidentally sent to the year 1955, he'll have to find a way back without destroying his future. Michael J. Fox, Christopher Lloyd, Lea Thompson, and Crispin Glover star in the sci-fi comedy blockbuster from director Robert Zemeckis and producer Steven Spielberg.

July 16 & 17 at 2:00pm
Back to the Future Part II (1989) [108 min.]

Directed by Robert Zemeckis

Getting back was only the beginning. Now our time traveling teen and his eccentric mentor will have to navigate multiple timelines if they're going to set their past, present, and future straight. But small changes could have giant consequences, especially when big bully Biff Tannen is involved.

July 23 & 24 at 2:00pm
Back to the Future Part III (1990) [119 min.]

Directed by Robert Zemeckis

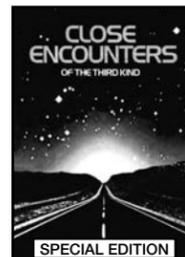

They've saved the best trip for last... But this time they may have gone too far. In the supremely satisfying conclusion to the smash hit trilogy, Marty must venture all the way back to 1885 to save his friend. But with their DeLorean out of gas, they'll have to adjust to life in the Wild West, dodge gunslingers, and find a new way home, all while Doc discovers true love.

July 30 & 31 at 2:00pm
Close Encounters of the Third Kind (1977) [132 min.]

Directed by Steven Spielberg

The Special Edition of Spielberg's science fiction masterpiece! When he sees the unexplainable, the life of Indiana lineman Roy Neary (Richard Dreyfuss) is turned upside down. As government agents uncover evidence that we are not alone, Roy's curiosity becomes all-consuming obsession, leading him on a cross-country trek to experience Close Encounters of the Third Kind - contact.
