All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Stanley Kubrick's foreboding masterpiece of psychological terror is an icy Stephen King scare-fest best experienced on screen. Determined to make a new start for his family, Jack Torrance accepts a winter job as caretaker at the remote, snowbound Overlook Hotel to make headway with his frustrated writing career. But as isolation grows and his young son's disturbing visions intensify, sanity will erode, and the gigantic lodge's sinister secrets will be revealed. Jack Nicholson, Shelley Duvall, and Danny Lloyd are stellar in one of cinema's all-time great nightmares, with Scatman Crothers, Joe Turkel, and Philip Stone doing superior work in key supporting roles.

DON'T DARE MAKE NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS...
UNLESS YOU PLAN TO LIVE!

NEW YEAR'S EVIL

...a celebration of the macabre.

Ring in the New Year with Cannon Films' sleazy slasher classic! As a new wave TV special rocks the airwaves on New Year's Eve, a deranged maniac makes obscene phone calls to the disc jockey host (Roz Kelly, Happy Days), threatening a murder as the clock hits midnight in each time zone. As the body count rises in this deliciously entertaining holiday bloodbath, our punk rock heroine may be next on the killer's grisly midnight hit list.

December 3 & 4

The Muppet Christmas Carol (1992) [86 min.]

Directed by Brian Henson

Revisit the timeless Dickens tale with your prized puppet pals in The Muppet Christmas Carol! Ebenezer Scrooge is the greediest grump in all of London until he's taken on a mystical journey of self-discovery by the Ghosts of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come. Filled with heart, humor, and all your favorite felt-lined friends, this family classic is a sensational, inspirational, celebrational, and perfectly muppetational treat.

December 10 & 11

Meet Me in St. Louis (1944) [113 min.]

Directed by Vincente Minnelli

Judy Garland's joyously festive delight is a can't-miss in 35mm! In a series of seasonal vignettes over the course of a year leading up to the 1904 St. Louis World's Fair, the Smith family and their four daughters learn about the ups and downs of life and love, all set to a series of unforgettable songs. Garland shines, while young Margaret O'Brien took home a special Academy Juvenile Award for Outstanding Child Actress.

December 17 & 18

Home Alone (1990) [101 min.]

Directed by Chris Columbus

After a precocious 8-year-old is accidentally forgotten when his family leaves on vacation, he'll have to fend for himself while protecting the homestead from two bumbling burglars nicknamed the Wet Bandits. This mega-blockbuster from writer John Hughes is packed with holiday hilarity, cartoon violence and a star-making performance by Macaulay Culkin, making it a childhood favorite you can't wait to watch every year.

December 31 & January 1

Notorious (1946) [102 min.]

Directed by Alfred Hitchcock

The screen's top romantic stars meet in an absolute classic from the master of suspense! An American operative recruits the daughter of a convicted spy to infiltrate a Nazi group in South America by any means necessary. But complications ensue when their lives become intimately entangled in Alfred Hitchcock's exquisite thriller Notorious, with stars Cary Grant, Ingrid Bergman, and Claude Rains.
