Reservoir Dogs (1992) [99 min.]

Written and Directed by Quentin Tarantino

Seven total strangers team up for the perfect crime. They don't know each other's name. But they've got each other's color. Quentin Tarantino's incendiary directorial debut ignited the filmmaker's distinctive voice and united him with some of his key players. When a jewelry store robbery goes wrong, Reservoir Dogs jumps between the crime's setup and its bloody aftermath as the men try to ferret out who might be the rat in their ranks. [Executive Produced by Monte Hellman]

Saturday • July 10

King Kong vs. Godzilla (1963) [97 min.]

Directed by Ishirō Honda and Thomas Montgomery

The two mightiest creatures of all time meet in the most colossal conflict the screen has ever known! See King Kong, the Eighth Wonder of the World, face off against the ultimate King of the Monsters...Godzilla! The towering titans smash, stomp, shatter, and destroy every obstacle in the path of their earth-shaking showdown in Toho's kaiju classic.

Saturday • July 17

The Warriors (1979) [92 min.]

Directed by Walter Hill

In Walter Hill's stylish & thrill-filled action masterpiece, The Warriors will have to battle their way from the mean streets of the Bronx back to the home-turf safety of Coney Island over the course of one dangerous night. If they're to survive, they'll need to outrun, outbrawl, and outsmart the 100,000 sworn enemies hot on their heels and out for their blood. Can you dig it?

Saturday • July 24

Something Wild (1986) [114 min.]

Directed by Jonathan Demme

Jonathan Demme's revved up - road trip - rom-com - thriller partners a buttoned-down businessman (Jeff Daniels) with a quirky charmer (Melanie Griffith) for a weekend of adventure. But the free-wheeling fun takes a dangerous turn with the surprise appearance of someone from her past. Packed with pitch-perfect performances and one of the best soundtracks of the decade, Something Wild remains wildly entertaining.
