FROM DUSK TILL DAWN

Saturday • October 2

Night of the Creeps (1986) [88 min.]

Directed by Fred Dekker

Writer-director Fred Dekker cleverly mixes horror & humor in his power-packed blast of pure entertainment, swiftly jumping from axe-wielding maniacs & fraternity pranks to sci-fi space slugs, exploding heads, zombie mayhem, flamethrower-wielding sorority sisters and beyond. Now a clean-cut college kid (Jason Lively) will have to team with a hard-boiled cop (genre icon Tom Atkins) if anyone's going to make it out alive.

Saturday • October 9

Dracula Sucks (1979) [95 min.]

Directed by Philip Marshak

Adults Only!

This time the Count is not just going for throat! Experience one of the most star-studded adult films ever unleashed, an X-rated combo of sex, skin, and style that mixes horror, humor, and hot 'n heavy hardcore with surprising results when Dracula (Jamie Gillis) moves next door to a sanitarium and uses its patients to satisfy his lust for carnal desires. Also featuring Annette Haven, John Holmes, Seka, Serena, Kay Parker and more!

Saturday • October 16

Harold and Maude (1971) [91 min.]

Directed by Hal Ashby

They met at the funeral of a perfect stranger. From then on, things got perfectly stranger and stranger. Hal Ashby's beloved black comedy is the perfect mix of macabre humor and sweet romance, following a young man adrift from his wealthy family, the death-obsessed Harold (Bud Cort), who finds love & friendship when he meets the eccentric, seventy-nine-year-old Maude (Ruth Gordon). Backed by the timeless music of Cat Stevens.

Saturday • October 30

Shaun of the Dead (2004) [99 min.]

Directed by Edgar Wright

Shaun (Simon Pegg) and his best friend Ed (Nick Frost) go from zero to hero in order to save Shaun's girlfriend and mum (and stepdad Phil) from the undead infiltrating the city. A biting criticism of the everyday zombies we encounter, Shaun of the Dead is a call to arms for all those in dead end jobs, stalled relationships, and wasting away on the same bar stool day after day to not wait for the end of the world to start living.

Saturday • October 23 starting at 7:00pm

October 3 at 2:00pm

The Birds (1963) [119 min.]

Directed by Alfred Hitchcock

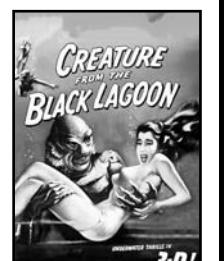

"It could be the most terrifying motion picture I have ever made" exclaims the master of suspense Alfred Hitchcock on the poster for his horror classic. When young socialite Tippi Hedren heads to Bodega Bay in pursuit of bachelor Rod Taylor, they soon find their budding romance threatened by feathered flocks mysteriously preying on the town. As the tension builds and the seagulls shockingly start swooping, no one is safe from The Birds!

October 9 & 10 at 2:00pm

Creature from the Black Lagoon (1954) [79 min.]

Directed by Jack Arnold

Sheer, stark terror grips you in underwater 3-D in the supremely entertaining Universal creature feature classic! When a boatload of scientists in an Amazonian paradise uncovers a strange beast not seen since the beginning of time, it triggers a titanic, subaquatic battle of man versus monster. But setting his sights on the bathing beauty (Julie Adams) on board could have tragic consequences for this misunderstood amphibian!

October 16 & 17 at 2:00pm

The Monster Squad (1987) [82 min.]

Directed by Fred Dekker

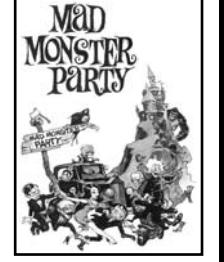

Get ready for a monster-ously good time with one of our favorite fright fantasies of the '80s! When Count Dracula, Frankenstein's Monster, the Wolfman, the Mummy, and the Gill-Man invade town, it'll take a pack of pint-sized superfans to save the day. Featuring a script by Shane Black & Fred Dekker, practical effects by Stan Winston, and impressive performances from its young cast, The Monster Squad is gleefully ghoulish fun!

October 23 & 24 at 2:00pm

Mad Monster Party? (1967) [94 min.]

Directed by Jules Bass

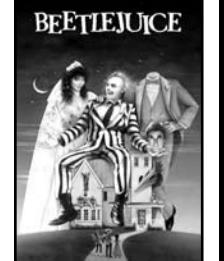

Where can you find Dracula, Frankenstein, the Mummy, the Werewolf, Jekyll and Hyde, the Hunchback and the Invisible Man all in one movie? In Rankin & Bass' groovy ghoulie film Mad Monster Party?, packed with cool tunes, classic stop motion animation and a plot that involves the secret to destroying the world. Will Baron Boris von Frankenstein (voiced by Boris Karloff) succeed in delivering his secret formula for world domination?

October 30 & 31 at 2:00pm

Beetlejuice (1988) [92 min.]

Directed by Tim Burton

When newlyweds Geena Davis and Alec Baldwin die in a car accident, they must haunt their recently departed home and scare away the obnoxious replacement residents (Jeffrey Jones & Catherine O'Hara), while befriending the new tenants' teenage daughter (Winona Ryder). But they get more trouble than they bargained for when they decide to recruit Michael Keaton's rambunctious "bio-exorcist" Beetlejuice to help!
